SOME DOUBT ABOUT IT.

Was R. H. Sampson First Lieutenant of Company "G?"

The Hawaiian Star, in its account of the celebration of Jan. 17th, contains the following:

"At 8 o'clock an immense crowd had gathered at the corner of Nuuanu and King to witness the hoisting of a 30x30 American flag on a 120-foot pole. The band was in attendance and rendered such patriotic airs as 'Star Spangled Banner,' 'Marching Through Georgia,' 'Rally 'Round the Flag.' A great cheer went up from the throng that congested two streets as the flag was hoisted aloft. R. H. Sampson, who served in the Civil War as First Lieutenant of Company 'G,' First Massachusetts Cavalry, cracked a bottle of champagne and christened the flag 'General Dix.' Three cheers were then proposed and given with a will."

There seems to be some doubt as to whether the Mr. Sampson who cracked the champagne with so much eclat was actually a member of Company "G" or not.

A. S. Calkins of this city, desiring to satisfy himself on the point, wrote for information and received the following reply:

WAKEFIELD, MASS., Feb. 20, 1894.
A. S. CALKINS, Esq., Honolulu, Hawaii:

DEAR SIR—In reply to your favor of the 30th ult. I would state that Mr. John M. Cate is not at Wakefield now so I referred your letter to a Mr. Frank Hayden, who was a member of the First Cavalry Massachusetts. He advised me that no such person as Richard H. Sampson appears on the Adjutant's report for the State of Massachusetts in Company "G," First Massachusetts Cavalry, either as an officer or otherwise. Yours truly,
FRED'K S. CATE.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The Councils Prepare the Way at Yesterday's Meeting.

D. B. SMITH IS ELECTED AT LAST.

The New Act That Provides for the Election of Delegates to a Convention—The Candidate of the American League "Gets There" This Time.

The Councils met yesterday afternoon with President Dole in the chair. There were present Ministers King, Damon, Hatch and Smith, and Councilors Ena, Waterhouse, Allen, Wilder, Emmeluth, Mendonca, Young, Balte, Tenney, Nott, Suhr and Morgan.

Minister Hatch read the following petition from the American League: HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE, HONOLULU, MAR. 3, 1894.

To the Executive and Advisory Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—I am requested by the American League to forward you the following resolution, which was adopted at our last meeting of March 2, 1894.

We, your memorialists composing several hundred men, pledged by an oath to the advocacy of the cause of annexation and to the support of yourselves in the performance of your duties, would most respectfully represent:

1. That D. B. Smith was and still is the candidate of this league for the vacancy in the Advisory Council.

2. That said candidacy was unanimously endorsed by a mass meeting of the Annexation Club at the drill shed.

3. That with no other candidate in the field, your honorable bodies rejected the name of D. B. Smith.

4. That an organization known as the International Schuetzen Club has formally advised the Councils by letter, that D. B. Smith is under a pledge or pledges as a member or candidate of this league that would hamper him in performance of the duties of a councilman.

5. That this statement made to you by the International Schuetzen Club is not a fact.

6. That D. B. Smith is not in any way bound by this league to carry out any plan or scheme of the American League, other than has been openly published as the platform of this organization.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, Your obedient servant,

THEO. P. SEVERIN,

Secretary American League.

Minister Hatch also presented a petition signed by a number of citizens, asking that D. B. Smith be elected. The document was as follows:

The undersigned respectfully endorse the candidacy of D. B. Smith for the vacancy in the Advisory Council, and recommend his election. Honolulu, March 7, 1894:

A. W. Keech, George W. Smith, Charles L. Carter, B. McStocker, James A. Kennedy, P. C. Jones, F. J. Lowrey, J. B. Atherton, William A. Bowen, William R. Castle, Theo. F. Lansing, F. W. McChesney, L. C. Ables, James A. Low, George H. Robertson, E. F. Bishop, B. F. Dillingham, C. Hedemann, William W. Hall, C. B. Ripley, G. P. Castle, Chas. H. Atherton, C. T. Rodgers, J. H. Fisher, N. B. Emerson, Charles B. Cooper, Frank S. Dodge.

Minister of Finance Damon then read the finance report for the past week. It was as follows:
